

Text to Save:

```

<!DOCTYPE html>
<html lang="en">
<head>
  <meta charset="UTF-8">
  <title>WebSocket Demo</title>
  <style>
    body { font-family: sans-serif; margin: 40px; }
    #log { width: 400px; height: 200px; border: 1px solid #ccc; overflow-y: scroll; padding: 10px;
margin-top: 10px; background: #f9f9f9; }
  </style>
</head>
<body>

  <h2>WebSocket Client</h2>
  <input type="text" id="messageInput" placeholder="Type a message..." disabled>
  <button id="sendBtn" disabled>Send</button>

  <script>
    // Connect to the Python WebSocket server URL
    //const socket = new WebSocket("ws://localhost:8765");
    const socket = new WebSocket("ws://localhost:8080/ws");
    const logDiv = document.getElementById("log");
    const input = document.getElementById("messageInput");
    const btn = document.getElementById("sendBtn");

    function log(text) {
      logDiv.innerHTML += `${text}`;
      logDiv.scrollTop = logDiv.scrollHeight;
    }

    // Connection opened event handler
    socket.onopen = (event) => {
      log("Connected to server!");
      input.disabled = false;
      btn.disabled = false;
    };

    // Listen for messages from the server
    socket.onmessage = (event) => {
      log(`⬇️ ${event.data}`);
    };

    // Connection closed event handler
    socket.onclose = (event) => {
      log("Disconnected from server.");
      input.disabled = true;
      btn.disabled = true;
    };

    // Send message to the server
    function sendMessage() {
      const message = input.value;
      if (message) {
        socket.send(message);
        log(`⬆️ Sent: ${message}`);
        input.value = "";
      }
    }

    btn.addEventListener("click", sendMessage);
    input.addEventListener("keypress", (e) => { if (e.key === "Enter") sendMessage(); });
  </script>
</body>
</html>

```

Filename to Save As:

Save Text to File

Select a File to Load:

 No file chosen